EQUAL SUFFRAGE GATHERING

Interesting Program Given at the Hovey Residence on Monday
Afternoon Followed by a Tea

The local Equal Suffrage League held a meeting at the Hovey residence on State street on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The entertainers were very interesting and the following was the program: Talk, "Suffrage in the State of California," Mrs. Post; talk, "Why I am a Suffragist," Mrs. Charles Conrad; humorous selection, Mrs. Scudder Klyne; "Million Suffragettes in England," and "Why Women Should Have the Vote," Miss Murphy; reading, humorous selection, Mrs. Joseph Connor; talk by Mrs. John L. Mitchell. Although every number was interesting and helpful the things that Miss Murphy brought home to the hearts of those present. Miss Murphy is a very brilliant young woman, a graduate of Tufts University, post graduate of Columbia University, and has done a great deal of settlement work in New York City. The conditions which were presented certainly need immediate attention and can be remedied only when women get the vote.

At the conclusion of the program, a very pretty tea was held.

The dining room was a very pretty scene, charmingly decorated with silver candleabra and the centerpiece of the table was arranged of jonquils and ranunculus.

Mrs. Charles Conrad, wife of Paymaster Conrad at the navy yard, poured tea, while Mrs. Edward S. Conder poured chocolate. Misses Helen Lighthouse, May DeFenger, Edwella DeFenger, Emily Benedict and Mrs. Joseph P. Connor served crackers and rainy wafers.

Mrs. Scudder Klyne and Mrs. Hovey received the guests upon arrival.

A BOON TO PRODUCERS.

Express Service Is an American Idea and No Other Country Has Anything Like It.

The American Express Company has issued a very interesting booklet entitled "Express Service" which outlines the service from the time of the original expressman who carried a shipment in a carpet bag, the method of transportation before the era of railroads—the old-time stage coach, to the present day when special trains carrying express cars only, running at great speed, traverse the continent via all principal lines of railway. The advantages of the much improved system of express transportation and delivery now is shown by the use of automobile trucks which are used extensively.

Express service is an exclusively American idea. No other country has anything like it. There is no comparison whatever between express in this country and what is in effect abroad.

The express is a boon to producers, as it locates markets for them, at the same time benefiting the consumers in transporting fresh fruits, vegetables, etc., as they are delivered quickly and safely.

The American Express handles everything from a pound of butter to horses, automobiles, aeroplanes, etc.

DRYDEN DEFEATED KILONIS IN A VERY FAST BOUT

Greek Makes a Game Fight--Gerhardt Wins From Johnson in a Great Match.

A large crowd of wrestling fans saw some of the best sport ever staged in this city on Monday evening at Freeman's hall, when in two finished matches the battle in each case was a royal one and from the call of time. It was clever, hard, and sometimes rough wrestling, but no body expects a wrestling game to be a lawn party, for when two big men get throwing each other around in a twenty foot ring, they are naturally not the gentlest people in the world. In the first match Dryden disposed of John Kilonis for good and all times, in a hard fought match, in which the Greek made a great showing. He has improved wonderfully since he was here a year ago, and he was as rough as ever, in fact, he tried the game for all it was worth on Monday evening and at times he had Dryden mad enough so that he gave him a return in full for all of his rough stuff.

Kilonis started with the call of time to get after Dryden and for the most of the time carried the work to him. He was out to win at any cost and there was some spectacular wrestling for some time. Several times he got Dryden where it looked bad, but he pulled out each time and eventually Dryden won in 32 min. and 30 sec. with a double nelson. Kilonis was pinned with his feet up on the ropes which gave him an advantage, but his shoulders were in on the mat. The second fall went to Kilonis in a peculiar way. They had been wrestling for twelve minutes when Dryden got the Greek with a body nelson and he was holding down Kilonis without any effort and forcing his shoulders in on the mat, when Kilonis reached over and tapped Dryden several times on the shoulder and Dryden thinking it was the referee let go his hold and started to get up when Kilonis got on his feet and rushed him against the ropes and pinned him down. The referee thinking, as did about everybody, that Kilonis was giving up, refused to allow the fall at first and was giving it to Dryden, but changed his mind and awarded it to Kilonis.

They immediately started again and it was fast work with both men fighting hard. Kilonis used all of the rough stuff he knew of and Dryden finally caught him with a toe hold and to the amusement of the crowd gave him some of his own medicine and when he was about ready to quit he changed it to a full body and pinned him to the mat in 15 minutes and 20 seconds.

Gerhardt Defeated Johnson
The second bout was between Franz Gerhardt who last week threw Cyclone Butts and Helmer Johnson, a fine looking heavy weight from Prussia. Johnson did not look to be in as fine condition as the German, but his looks were deceiving. He is somewhat the same build as Holter, with his muscles well covered, a direct contrast to Gerhardt, who is wonderfully developed but his muscles stand out like whipcords. It was a great match from the start. Johnson started after the German and they kept the crowd on their feet by their fast work. The German is wonderfully

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a Glass of Salts If Your Back Or Bladder Bothers.—Meat Forms Uric Acid

If you must have your meat every day, eat it but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weak, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

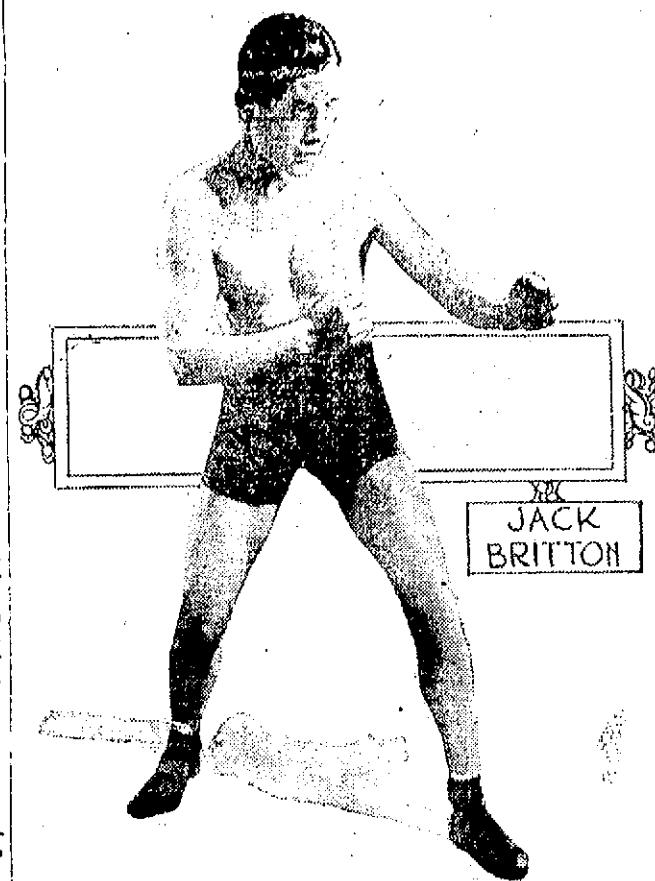

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in the blood, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Butter that has traveled 12,000 miles from New Zealand soon will be placed on sale in the United States.

SENATOR HOLLIS A SPEAKER

Suggests Name of Dr. Hollander, a Republican, for Reserve Board.

Senator Hollis one of the speakers at the banquet of the Bankers Association of the District of Columbia, and who is a member of the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, in the course of his remarks said: "Although there was a common understanding among senators not to press the name of anyone upon the President for the federal reserve board, he had ventured to call the President's attention to the availability of Dr. Jacob H. Hollander of Baltimore, who reorganized the financial system of Porto Rico following its acquisition by the United States."

"And" said the senator "he is a Republican, too. I consider him one of the greatest financial experts in the world. One of the remarkable things he did was to write an article in which he pointed out the faults of the old currency system and predicted that a nation-wide money panic would be the result. Well, the panic came. It seemed to me that a man so thoroughly familiar with the currency problems of the world would be a good man to have on the board."

Both Senator Hollis and Shafroth of Colorado who was also at the dinner, predicted that Washington would be made a federal reserve city, and Senator Shafroth went so far as to hope that the federal reserve board would be Republican in its membership, so as to identify that party with whatever success or failure may reside in the law.

Congressman Phelan of Massachusetts is vigorous in his belief that Boston will be made a federal reserve city.

A PATRIOTIC CREED.

New York Bank Issues a Few Rules for Business Men to Ponder Over.

The Editor of The Herald is in receipt of a very neat little card published by the Chase National Bank of New York which bears upon it a creed which it would be well if every business man and mechanic would strive to live up to. The following are the helpful lines entitled, "A Patriotic Creed."

"We believe in our country, the United States of America. We believe in her Constitution, her laws, her institutions, and the principles for which she stands. We believe in her future—the past is secure. We believe in her vast resources, her great possibilities—yes, more, her wonderful certainties."

"We believe in the American people, their genius, their brain, and their brawn. We believe in their honesty, their integrity and dependability. We believe that nothing can stand in the way of their commercial advancement and prosperity."

"Times of business depression" are but periods of preparation for greater and more pronounced commercial successes.

"And we believe that in our country are being worked out great problems, the solution of which will be for the benefit of all mankind."

MORGAN'S COLLECTION

New York, Jan. 26.—Reports are in circulation that the $50,000,000 collection of paintings, miniatures, porcelains and other works of art left by the late J. Pierpont Morgan, may be sold and otherwise disposed of by his son, because the city is said to have delayed making proper provision for them.

The late Mr. Morgan had intended as he stated in his will, to dispose of the art treasures in the collection so as to render them permanently available for the instruction and pleasure of the American people. At the same time he left the collection to his son to be disposed of as the present head of the house of Morgan might see fit.

George Mitchell of York was a Sunday visitor in town. An incident that gave the ladies of the W. C. T. U., much pleasure transpired at the Union Bethel service in the Free Baptist church on Sunday evening. A rival vote as to who favored National Prohibition, resulted in a unanimous expression in its favor on the part of the sixty people present.

FRISCO SECURITIES SALE STRONGLY CONDEMNED.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The Interstate Commerce Commission's report of its investigation of the Frisco Railroad system receivership made in response to a Senate resolution was sent to Congress today with a review of facts, saying the Senate resolutions "do not call for expressions of opinion or recommendations."

The Commission's report reviews exhaustively the history of the purchase of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois by the St. Louis & San Francisco company; the subsequent receivership and the history of the purchase of the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico by the St. Louis & San Francisco. "The sale of securities to the investing public through the bankers at a time when every appearance indicated the insolvency of the issuing company, in violation of the laws of the United States and warrants condemnation of all those who assisted or participated in each sale," says the report. "Speyer & Co., should have been aware of the poverty of the Frisco and of its difficulties in obtaining funds."

ADMIRAL FLETCHER TO BE NEXT COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF

His Good Work in Mexican Waters to Be Recognized By President.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The next commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet will probably be Rear Admiral Frank R. Fletcher, at present exercising the supreme naval command in Mexican waters. Until recently it was understood that the officer who was to succeed Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger would be Rear Admiral Cameron McK. Winslow, who was recently relieved of the command of the first division of the Atlantic fleet. A few days ago, however, Admiral Winslow was ordered to Newport for duty at the Naval War College, which is taken to mean that he has been eliminated from consideration for the highest naval command in the gift of the Government, that of the Atlantic fleet. It has been stated on high authority that the only thing that now stands between Fletcher and the Atlantic fleet assignment is the possibility that it may be necessary to keep him in Mexican waters for many months to come, in which event the appointment of a successor to Admiral that the Navy Department told him to stay, not caring to trust the command to an officer who might fall to live up to the standard that Fletcher had set. And so Fletcher has remained, switching his flag from ship to ship as each squadron sailed back home and a new squadron came to take its place.

Service in Mexico.

At least seven times Admiral Fletcher has switched his flag since he went to Mexico. First it was the battleship Louisiana from which his two starred pennant fluttered, then it was the Virginia, next the Rhode Island, and so on down the list. Henceforth, however, it may not be necessary for the admiral to move every time the ships are changed. This had been made possible by the sending of the naval dispatch boat Dolphin to Vera Cruz. The Dolphin will remain in Mexican waters until the present troubles are ended, and will be the vessel from which the admiral will direct American naval operations in Mexican waters.

The man who will probably be the next commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet was born in Oakala, Mo., Nov. 23, 1855. He entered the naval service as a cadet midshipman from the fourth congressional district of Iowa Sept. 23, 1870, graduating from the Naval Academy in June, 1875. He was promoted to the rank of ensign July 18, 1876; to lieutenant (junior grade) April 1, 1882; to lieutenant commander March 3, 1889. During the Spanish-American war he served as assistant chief of the Bureau of Ordnance from April 2, 1898, to July 7, 1898; on board the St. Louis from July 8, 1898, to July 18, 1898; in command of the Kamehameha from July 19,

TO BREAK UP AUSTRIA

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—Official figures showing the strength, losses in battle and by disease, and spoils of the Greek army in the two Balkan wars have been received in Washington. They are being studied with great interest by officers of the United States army.

At the beginning of the Balkan war says the summary, the Greek army numbered about 110,000 soldiers. Of these seven divisions with 143 guns were disposed in Thessalia and a force of one division with 24 guns in Epirus.

The total number of the reservists who enlisted in the army from the beginning of the mobilization to the release of the troops reached 282,000. In the second war eight divisions of 70,000 firearms, 1,600 sabres and 172 guns were first arrayed against the Bulgarians. During the war, in order to have the vacancies filled up, the Macedonian army was reinforced by the Eighth division, of ten thousand firearms, seventy sabres and eight guns, being recalled from Epirus.

Losses during the Balkan war against Turkey. Officers killed, 138; wounded, 130. Soldiers killed or who died because of wounds received in battle, 5,931. Soldiers wounded and ill, 23,313. Total 28,671. These losses are reckoned from the beginning of the hostilities in the Balkan war until the declaration of the Greco-Bulgarian war, i. e., in the period of about nine months.

Losses during the Greco-Bulgarian war: Officers killed, 166; wounded, 420. Soldiers killed or who died because of wounds received in battle, 2,397. Soldiers wounded or ill, 18,873. Total 21,

870. These losses are accounted from the beginning of the hostilities in the Greco-Bulgarian war until the armistice, i. e., the period of only one month.

The number of the Turkish prisoners of war, except those who have been released because they were natives of Salonica and the surroundings amounted to 68,315, of whom 1,581 were officers of the active army, numbering six generals and 119 officers of the sanitary service.

The number of the Bulgarian prisoners of war, not counting the komitadjis (irregulars) was 6,830.

Spills of the war against Turkey—Guns of different calibres, 325; powder carts and ammunition wagons, 455; Maxim, 81; Mauser and Martini firearms, 100,000; shells, 45,867; cartridges, 34,457,000; charges of smokeless gunpowder, 3000; barrels of gunpowder, 600; one military automobile, with guns; sewing machines, 101; mangle forges; 8; jumps, 8, and various other field properties.

DON'TS FOR NEWLY-WEDS

Solitude for the welfare of prospective brides has caused County Clerk Louis G. White of Milwaukee to assume the role of paternal adviser to all young married couples.

Realizing that the eugenic marriage law is on the eve of its adoption and that when it becomes operative the love sick youth must have an unusually strong heart to pop the question to the girl and to answer the questions of the physician who is to pass upon the application of Cupid's victim to be admitted to the order of Benedictine, the county clerk has framed a number of "don'ts" which will be doled out to such couple.

The first is one that to the old veterans of the Benedictine army is familiar, but not practicable—"don't argue." The second one, "don't be the boss," will be easily observed by hubby as he will be in a state of coma for some time after the physician had thumped his chest and buttered his ribs in searching for some organic innaccuracy and $3 in his makeup.

Here's one that is going to revolutionize many a domestic circle, and incidentally place the county clerk in a position where to go out without a bodyguard will be extremely hazardous—"Don't forget that your wife's mother is the same to your wife as your mother is to you."

Another that will tend to offset the previous admonition and will keep every married man that can afford to buy them is: "Don't stay at home all the time."

That Mr. Wedale is a philosopher is evidenced by this choice golden nugget: "Don't forget that the man worth while is the man who can smile when everything goes dead wrong."

That the courage of the county clerk is like that of the king of the desert is seen when, in the face of countless dangers and unkindly of the dire result he fearlessly writes in a bold, flowing hand this abjuration: "Don't let your wife vote."

The following is the list:

- Don't argue.
- Don't be the boss.
- Don't show your own importance.
- Don't forget who you are, and what your wife is.
- Don't be deceitful.
- Don't be grouchy.
- Don't be a spendthrift or a tightwad.
- Don't forget that your wife's mother is the same to your wife as your mother is to you.
- Don't forget the church.
- Don't forget that the man worth while is the man who can smile when everything goes dead wrong.
- Don't stay at home all the time.
- Don't let your wife vote.
- Don't let your husband bring his business cares home.
- Don't let your wife go through your pockets.
- Don't have an affinity.
- Don't forget to wipe your shoes before you come in the house.
- Don't butt in.

GOING TO PHILADELPHIA AFTER
NOTED JEWELRY ROBBER

Sheriff Coyton Splanney and Chief of Police Michael Hurley, left this morning for Philadelphia to bring back Edward R. Beach, alias "Red" Thomas, who is wanted here for the jewelry robbery at the summer estate of George M. Studebaker at Little Bear's Head, in 1912.

Beach will be remembered, was traced to Philadelphia and he was arrested while about to sail for England.

He was wanted in Philadelphia for an offense and he was sentenced there and his time is up this week. County Solicitor Caplin was notified that Beach's time would be up and he is sending the two officers to get him. Beach has a decidedly bad record and he is wanted in New York and several other places, but this county was responsible for his arrest and will get him first.

SUPERIOR COURT

The suit brought by Max Pollner against Police Officer U. A. Phibbrick resulting from an attempt for larceny of junk, was called in Superior Court on Monday and it was announced, so that Pollner will be assessed all of the costs.

The jury in the case of Hoyt vs. Dedes for false arrest, awarded a verdict in favor of the Dedes.

Today the case of Camuso vs. Marano is scheduled and it will be tried by a jury.

1,500,000,000 ORANGES.

Yield in California—This Season Break All Records—Large Crops of Lemons and Grapefruit.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—After twelve years of disappointments Pacific coast citrus fruit growers this year have produced a bumper crop, according to a statement made by F. O. McCormick, vice president of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Estimates placed the California shipment of oranges at 40,000 cars, more than double that of a year ago and more than has been sent out any year in the history of the industry. The 40,000 cars would average 400 boxes each and every box would contain between 80 and 100 oranges, with an approximately 1,500,000,000 oranges shipped.

The season developed several weeks earlier than usual this year, Mr. McCormick said, and 4000 cars had been shipped from the Porterville district already. A good, early movement would continue, culminating with the bulk of the crop late in February and early in March, according to the railroad office.

The lemon and grapefruit crops are large in proportion, and the citrus fruits and vegetables will probably break their records.

MUSTEROLE PUTS PAIN
for Millions

Our grandmothers had a sovereign remedy for pain and aches—the old-fashioned mustard plaster.

It did the work, but goodness how it did sting and blister!

Now you can get this marvelous relief, without the plaster and without the blister!

MUSTEROLE is the Twentieth Century form—a clean, white ointment made with oil of mustard that you rub on—and the pain is gone.

And it won't blister the tenderest skin.

It's so easy to apply. You don't have to bother with a cloth. Just rub it in lightly—so that it penetrates the pores and you get delicious, cooling relief.

There is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of Back or Joints, Sprains, Shingles, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Frostbite, Prickly Heat, Chills of the chest (all prevent pneumonia). Millions of jars of MUSTEROLE are sold annually. It is a staple in the large hospitals.

Doctors and nurses use it and recommend it to the patients.

Ask your doctor. At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, O., and we will mail you a jar postpaid.

Mrs. Mattie J. Smith, St. Paul, Minn., says: "Musterole is worth its weight in gold, and I recommend it abundantly every day. It is the best for Asthma, Bronchitis and Rheumatism of anything I have ever used."

HUDSON Six-40

$1750 f.o.b. Detroit

The Most Talked-About Car
in the Country

See This Innovation

A few days ago the first Six-40 was shipped from the HUDSON factory. Before this time the first month's output had been ordered by users who had not seen the car.

They were sold on these startling facts:

That the streamline body, the equipment, the new features were like the latest HUDSON Six-54, the handsomest car of the season.

That the weight would be under 3,000 pounds—under any comparable Four.

That the operative cost would be less than any equal-powered Four.

That the price would be $1750, f. o. b. Detroit—way below the price of Fours of equal power and size and class.

Think What This Means

Sixes have been high-priced, heavy, costly to operate. For that reason many have been forced to buy Fours.

Now comes this Six-40. It weighs 500 pounds less than last year's HUDSON "37"—a Four. It costs one-fourth less to operate. And it far undersells any Four in its class.

You legions of men who seek lightness and economy find them now in this Six-40—beyond any Four you know.

A Distinguished Car

In addition, here is the new streamline body. Here are all the new features which characterize the new HUDSON Six-54. Disappearing tonneau seals. Gasoline tank in cowl dash. Left side drive. Extra tires ahead of the front door.

Up to six months ago, no car at any price offered so many attractions.

And a car designed by Howard E. Coffin, the great HUDSON engineer. A car that embodies all the best HUDSON standards.

Our first Six-40 has just arrived. It is now on exhibition. Come, see it and ride in it while it is new. The car marks a new era in motor-car history, and all of you should know it.

The Men Responsible for Defeating the Dependent Mothers.

This newspaper heartily endorses the position of the Leader regarding its stand on the question of providing for dependent mothers. The law was passed in good faith and with the sentiment of the people behind it. The defeat of the successful operation of the law will hit those responsible for it in no mistaken way very soon. In pointing out the facts the Leader says:

"It seems a very great pity that no helpful hand could have been ready the other day, when a Chelsea woman, facing the desperate situation of supporting two small children, one an infant of six months, and with a husband helpless in a sanatorium, undertook to solve her sad problem by the double tragedy of murder of her babies and suicide.

"That she had pondered bitterly over her own case, and the tragic issues of life for the very poor, was shown by these verses which were found pinned to her dead breast:

"By wreck and explosion and fire,
By swindling and thievery and traps,
We are robbed that a stock may go higher;
We die lest the dividend lapse.

"Then we scream for an agonized hour
In the smoke and the steam and the flame,
So the state drops a tear and a flower;
God will it; Why? Who was to blame?"

"Not all who meet misfortune which spells hunger and destitution, which comes despite their bravest efforts, go so far as this unhappy woman in her passion of dejection, but without doubt the sentiment of these verses finds a fertile soil in the mind of many unfortunate people. The cherishing of such bitterness, based on a real or fancied injustice is a menace to society.

"In the recent session of the state legislature of New Hampshire, a very wise and just law was passed, which provided for state aid for mothers, who are the sole support of little children, and this with no sacrifice to their self-respect. By the terms of the law, any mother who is deemed worthy of help in the judgment of the school board, is recommended by the board to the county commissioners, who are instructed to pay a stated amount out of the funds in the county treasury not otherwise appropriated, to go toward the support of the fatherless home.

Most unfortunately, this excellent and timely law is failing of its noble purpose owing to the interpretation given it by the county commissioners, who assert that since no money has been appropriated by them for the specific purpose of relief of mothers, they are therefore without authority to pay the claims of mothers recommended by the school boards! The county commissioners, it appears, have meetings every two years at which the appropriations of the county funds are made, and at their last meeting no such appropriation was made, there being at that time no mothers' pension law.

"The reading of the law seems clear enough. 'It shall be the duty of the county commissioners of each county to provide out of the moneys in the county treasury NOT OTHERWISE APPROPRIATED, an amount sufficient to meet the purposes of this law.'

"It would seem logical that only in the event of an empty county treasury would the county commissioners be prevented from carrying out this law. As they now interpret it, they are in effect defeating the plainly expressed will of the people, enacted into law.

"It would be a good thing if a test case could be made of some case recommended by the school board to prove the validity of the law or the correctness of the attitude assumed by the county commissioners."

Chairman Howard Elliott of the New England railways is certainly a man of action and he is making good his promise to unscramble the New England lines. To many it looks like a step backward. Time will tell, but we are glad to see the Boston & Maine getting out of the mess.

Some Japanese gardeners in California have sent to Secretary Bryan a radish weighing 12 pounds. They must be careful or they will be charged with seeking to exert undue influence on a government official. And that would be an awful thing—if done by Japanese.

Now it is claimed that telephone operating is bad for the eyes. It must also be trying to the nerves at times, but, as a rule, the operators are very successful in keeping that fact from coming to the surface.

Dayton, O., which was badly ripped up by a flood last spring, has just had a serious fire. The city seems to be having more than its share of hard luck, but it is not to be put down and out.

Frequent dispatches show that there is serious danger in the innocent sport of coasting.

Principals In Divorce Suit That Has Caused a Sensation.

The Goelet divorce suit is the sensation of the hour in exclusive eastern society circles. Mrs. Elsie Whelan Goelet of New York and Newport has served her husband, Robert Goelet, multifortunate and son of the late Ogden Goelet, with the necessary papers. She asks for a divorce and the custody of her two children under the laws of the state of Rhode Island, alleging that Mr. Goelet has been guilty of "extreme cruelty, gross misbehavior and wickedness in violation of his marriage contract." Mrs. Goelet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whelan of Philadelphia. Mr. Goelet inherited $5,000,000 and is a personal friend of ex-President Roosevelt, the Grand Duke Boris of Russia and of other notable personages.

DENIES HE FLED FROM JUSTICE

sture on a pretext when the real purpose for demanding him is something foreign to the matter set out in the extradition papers.

If the purpose of this requisition is to return Thaw to Matteawan it is not in good faith. If it is procured and pressed for private reasons at the instance of individuals it is not for public reasons and therefore is not in good faith.

Suspicion of Malice Arises

"The fact that the state is seeking to assume a burden for so trivial an offense, opens the door of suspicion that behind it all there is the malice of private individuals. It is immaterial whether these individuals are public officers or private citizens. We have heard a great deal about vindictive the law—against the lavish use of the Thaw millions. We unhesitatingly say that if Thaw had been an ordinary laborer without a dollar and had been committed to Matteawan because not found guilty of homicide by reason of insanity, he would long since have been released on a charge on the state of New York.

He would have been deported to his home state long ago. It is because of the newspaper notoriety due to his financial standing and prominence of the Thaw family and the pique of the prosecuting officers that they did not secure his conviction, that has kept Thaw in Matteawan for five long years, and we are strongly of the opinion from what appears to be the history of this case that the desire to punish him is still an important factor in the proceedings for his extradition.

"Under a law in the state of New York, Thaw could be deported to Pennsylvania his home state.

"Many insane people have been deported under this law from the state of New York to their home states.

The authority to deport rests with the board of commissioners named in the law. Public policy would require this board to deport Thaw to Pennsylvania, but he is detained in Matteawan, and his detention against the practice with other insane criminals, gives rise and justifies the presumption that he is detained there at the expense and request of some private person or persons whose influence is sufficient to cause his detention.

"Never in the history of the criminal insane has such determined zeal been manifested to retain possession of an insane person as is displayed in this proceeding. Never has there been so much money expended to return an escaped lunatic to an asylum. It would seem that at least some of the people of New York are not anxious to have him returned. The grand jury of Dutchess County, in which Matteawan asylum is situated, have refused to indict him on the same charge as that contained in the present indictment.

"The district attorney of New York did not present this indictment to the grand jury which indicted Thaw. We cannot conceive of any natural desire to return an escaped lunatic to an insane asylum. The offense charged is conspiracy, a small misdemeanor, and not a conspiracy involving moral turpitude. It is not a conspiracy to do injury to others, or to defraud others, or to do injury to the public or defraud the public."

"The brief of the state of New York was filed two weeks ago. Judge Edgar Aldrich has not yet set a time for argument on the question of Thaw's petition for the granting of the writ of habeas corpus.

A DECIDED ADVANTAGE.

All Cadillac models are of the right hand drive type, as the designers recognize that this is the natural side from which to drive, steer and control a vehicle and that it gives the driver at all times the best viewpoint for clearance, particularly in country driving. There is also an advantage in approaching the curb where a stop is to be made. As the right side is the natural side from which most people operate, the control levers are also on that side.

While this idea prevails, the Cadillac's designers have so constructed their car that the occupants of the front seat can enter at or leave from either side, the steering wheel is hinged, swinging down so that there is plenty of room and no squeezing is necessary.

The advantage of this is that neither the driver nor his companion in the front seat ever has to step out into a muddy street and go around the car to get to the sidewalk. An entrance to the car, in like manner, is directly from the curb where the car rests.

FAVORS A LARGER NAVY

Secretary of the Navy Daniels Makes Plea for Same at Banquet.

Once more it will be seen that the present secretary of the navy, Joseph Daniels, is favorable to a larger navy. His last talk on the increase of this branch of Uncle Sam's service, was at the banquet of the North Carolinian Society of Washington.

Mr. Daniels' plea for a larger navy was prefaced with a quotation from James C. Dobbins, a North Carolinian, and a former secretary of the navy department. The quotation follows:

"I deem it my duty candidly to express the opinion that our navy is not only too diminutive to be expected to contend fairly with that of other respectable nations, is insufficient to give adequate protection to our commerce, and is unquestionably too feeble to command the waters of our own coast. Without naval strength a six month war with any nation, with a powerful marine would result in the seizure of rich and valuable cargoes, in the destruction of fleets of merchantmen and in plundering defenseless points along the coast, and would cost us far more than a squadron of invincible men-of-war. I regard this increase of naval strength, not as a war, but as a peace measure.

"While I by no means suggest the policy or the necessity of so large a naval force as so many powerful nations foster, yet it is desirable and attainable too, that the American citizens should gather confidence, courage, and energy from the reflection that he belongs to a government recognized by all as able to avenge his wrongs and vindicate his rights."

Mr. Daniels dwelt on the love of native land and fellow men, saying that he believed a man must first love the spot of land on which he lives before he can love the country of which the pieces of land is a part and likewise must love the country before loving the state. He must love the state before he can love the nation, and the nation before he can love the universe, he said. He believed that a man should have a higher regard for the opinion of those who are nearest to him, his neighbors, than those farther away.

Mr. Daniels' address was in the main humorous. He told the number of important positions held by North Carolinians under the present administration, and recited the history of the work done by the four North Carolina Secretaries of the Navy who preceded him. He paid tribute to Admiral Dewey, characterizing him as a "big-hearted and highly courageous man."

NEW CASTLE

The winter signs, snow and freeze, snow and blow, have fitted the weather for the past week, and the end is not yet seemingly in sight for the air has a thin still cold that bodes more snow. Making sufficient allowance for celebrated thermometers it is distinctly unusual for the mercury to drop 17 below zero in New Castle, which eventuated when the last cold wave swooped down upon us. Should February give us a similar strong touch let us hope it will not find us in such a state of unpreparedness.

The light snow over the coating of ice has made pedal locomotion extremely difficult. One has to pick their way gingerly over the treacherous walking. At times one is compelled to use such care to maintain their equilibrium that they felt they were rapidly qualifying as a balancer and might in the future essay tight rope walking with a fair chance of success.

Mrs. Louise Meloon has recovered from a severe cold.

Mr. Elmer Fridham has moved his family into their new home.

CURRENT OPINION

Shorter Hours for Railroad Employees Conducive to Safety.

Violations of the law limiting the service of train employees on American railroads to sixteen consecutive hours go to the very heart of the efficiency and safety of train operation.

Nearly three hundred thousand violations of the sixteen hour law were reported by two hundred and sixty-nine railroads during the year, the roads submitting various reasons why such violations were necessary. Two hundred and fifty-one thousand one hundred and eleven men, it was pointed out, were employed in handling trains during the year, and the excess service probably would not exceed one instance to each employee.

As a result of the prosecutions instituted by the commission the instances of excess service reported during the last six months as compared with the corresponding figures for preceding years has shown a marked reduction.

My belief is that the carriers involved will concede to the commission's analysis of their reports such a degree of attention as will enable them by apprising themselves of the preventable causes of excess service to eliminate the majority of instances in which employees heretofore have been permitted or required to remain on duty for longer periods than sixteen consecutive hours.—Charles C. TRAMP THROUGH AQUEDUCT

Four Reporters Complete Trip of 115 Miles from Catskills to New York Under Ground.

New York, Jan. 26.—There is a hole in the ground over at Flushing and Lafayette avenues, Brooklyn. Out of it yesterday afternoon emerged, head first, four reporters lavishly smeared with the mud of Ashokan. They had travelled all the way through and above the new Catskill aqueduct, which terminates just now at the hole in the ground in Brooklyn—115 miles of tunnel, slush and foot pain. The trip saved some unknown persons seven days of interviewing. Otherwise it apparently had no altruistic results, unless sending one newspaper man to a hospital and crippling half a dozen others possibly for life may be regarded in that light.

The last day of the journey was begun at One Hundred Sixth street, and Central Park West by a sheer drop through a shaft 225 feet deep in a contrivance that looked more like a bird cage than anything else and seemed even more fragile. From that point the aqueduct travels under Central Park Sixth avenue, Broadway, Fourth avenue, the Bowery, Delancey, Allen, Hester and Clinton streets to the East River. By the time it gets there it has bored its way 757 feet in to the earth, the deepest point in the system. It is by some trick of fate the aqueduct waters should ever become loosened at that point they would shoot into the air, so the engineers say, 280 feet and spread sufficiently before falling to wash out the entire district known as Larry Mulligan's.

But such an event can't be counted on and instead it is likely that the Catskill water, flowing at the rate of 260,000,000 gallons a day or so, will surge through the solid rock tunnel beneath the East River and, conducting itself with regulation department, splash on through Brooklyn, finally to wind up at Staten Island. The tunnel under the East River is entirely completed except for lining the sides with cement, and that has been done in some portions of the three-quarters of a mile. Walking through the city aqueduct is easier to write about than to do. Long trains of cement cars bounce on you out of the solid blackness and unsuspected Niagara's tumble down your back. Only a few sections are entirely completed, but all parts are in such stages of advancement that they can be finished probably within the year.

A WEEK OF VARIED WEATHER

Cold, Warmer, Snow, Fair and More Snow and Perhaps Some Rain.

Washington, Jan. 26.—A varied assortment of wintry weather for the different sections of the country is forecast by the Weather Bureau for the coming week. The bulletin says:

This week will open with generally unsettled weather except in the north east, the central Rocky Mountains region and the extreme southwest, and there will be a moderate cold wave in New England and the middle Atlantic states.

A disturbance now over the Plains states will move eastward, attended by general snows over the northern, snows and rains over the central, and rains over the southern districts from the Missouri and Mississippi valleys eastward, and by somewhat higher temperatures generally, reaching the Atlantic coast Monday night or Tuesday.

This disturbance will be followed by fair weather for a day or two, but another marked disturbance now on the north Pacific coast will cause a continuation of the rains and snows west of the Rocky Mountains and their extension eastward, probably reaching the Rocky Mountains Tuesday, the Plains states Tuesday night or Wednesday, the central valleys and the lake region Wednesday and Thursday and the eastern states by Friday.

It will be followed by clearing weather and more winter temperatures beginning by Tuesday over the far west by Thursday over the central portion of the country and by the close of the week over the east. After the rains of Monday and Tuesday in the south, fair weather will follow, probably until near the end of the week, and moderate temperatures are now indicated.

GRANITE STATE DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION Exhibits.

In connection with the Agricultural convention held in Concord Feb. 11-12, there will be an exhibit of barn equipment, dairy utensils, complete equipment for milk rooms, churns, Babcock testers, maple sugar apparatus and fertilizers. The following firms will make extensive exhibits:

Chapin & Co., Boston, Mass., Universal Milling Co., Cincinnati, O., Creamery Package Mfg. Co., Albany, N. Y., Vermont Farm Machine Co., Bellows Falls, Vt., Henry E. Wright & Sons, Boston, Mass., P. E. Ziegler Co., Boston, Mass., Vermont Milk Co., Brattleboro, Vt., Lowell Fertilizer Co., Boston, Mass., Wells & Richardson Co., Burlington, Vt., J. E. Ford Co., Wyandotte, Mich., De Laval Separator, New York, N. Y., American Agricultural Chemical Co., Boston, Mass., Sharpless Separator Co., West Chester, Pa.

Why do we have these exhibits? Because we want the dairymen of New Hampshire to have an opportunity to see new and modern equipment for barns and dairies. We want them to get personally acquainted with the firms that have these things for sale. We want them to talk with the representatives about the advantages of the different appliances. We want them to find out what the various things cost. The dealers and manufacturers are bringing these things in to our state for the farmers to see. You get a better idea by looking at a piece of apparatus itself than by looking at a picture in a catalogue.

If you are interested in anything new for your dairy or barn, come to Concord, Feb. 11-12. For information in regard to machinery exhibits and milk and cream and butter show, write to Fred Rasmussen, Sec'y., Durham, N. H.

SECOND MATE WAS DROWNED

Captain Carlisle and Crew of Prescott Palmer Arrives at New York.

Captain George A. Carlisle and 11 of the crew of the American five masted schooner Prescott Palmer, recently abandoned at sea, were aboard the steamer Bermudian, which reached New York Monday evening.

The Prescott Palmer was on her way from Norfolk, Va., to this port with a cargo of coal when the heavy weather which set in on January 12 and did so much damage along the Atlantic seaboard, overtook her and compelled her abandonment. Second Mate Hans Hansen was swept overboard and drowned.

Aboard the Bermudian also were two sailors of the British schooner Ladysmith, abandoned on January 17 in latitude 40 50, longitude 63 46. The survivors of the Ladysmith were picked up by the British steamer Chignecto, from Halifax to Bermuda, while the American crew was rescued on January 22 by the British steamer Cammies, New York for Pernambuco. Both steamers landed the shipwrecked men at Bermuda, whence they were brought here by the Bermudian.

GIRLS' CLUB NOTES.

The luncheons which are prepared every Monday and Wednesday noon and served at the club rooms are much appreciated by the business girls, especially by the out-of-town girls.

One young girl member, who resides out of town, offered her services and prepares one luncheon and serves it every week. Wasn't this kind and thoughtful of this popular member? Especially so, as she is a very busy girl and is greatly handicapped by living out of town.

Be sure to enjoy the luncheon at the club on Wednesday noon.

At different times, friends of the club have sent in pies, fancy cakes, large quantities of tea, crackers and other things which add to the girls' enjoyment, all of which were greatly appreciated and also made the girls very happy.

The baked bean supper idea is a very successful one, and is bound to be an attraction to the people down town on Saturday evening.

New members are joining the club daily, why not you, Miss Non-member? You will be welcomed and made to feel at home at the club at all times.

Make the club your second home. Enjoy the home circle, with "Mammy Goodwin" and all your sisters.

The spirit of congeniality is very noticeable in our club.

The dramatic club will hold a rehearsal of "Rosemary" this Tuesday evening.

A group of members are to hold an invitation card and dancing party at the club rooms on Wednesday evening.

On Thursday evening, a set of tableaux entitled "A World of Girls" will be presented at the club rooms at 8 o'clock. Everyone cordially invited to attend. A very pleasant evening is anticipated.

The house committee for the month consists of Misses Frances Salden, Marguerite Philbrick, Esther Shoberg and Dorothy Law.

DO YOU PLAY FAIR MR. STOREKEEPER?

Of course you would resent any idea that you did not play fair with your customers.

But do you play fair with the manufacturers who help you? Do you play fair with yourself?

When a manufacturer places his advertising in the newspapers of your town, and makes a market for you do you back him up?

Do you let the public know you have the goods?

If not, why not?

This is a line of questions you should ask yourself until you find a satisfactory answer.

The right answer will go far towards building your business and increasing your sales in 1914.

WOULD BREAK UP RADIUM MONOPOLY.

He Would Put the Curative Mineral on the Market Cheaply for Many Sufferers.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Secretary Lane told the House Mines Committee today that Congress should break up the "monopoly that keeps radium at a fabulously prohibitive price" and enact legislation to put the curative mineral on the market cheaply for large numbers of sufferers. Secretary Lane combated arguments against withdrawal of lands, saying there was no intention of setting aside a vast area nor to lock up the mineral ore lands indefinitely, but simply to get radium out for public use where it would not be in the hands of a monopoly. Secretary Lane's proposal was to divide a certain area into tract of 360 acres, allow exclusive licenses to prospect and if a prospector found radium, to allow him all the usual rights except that the Government would take 20 or 25 per cent of the radium obtained. He would also give the Government absolute control over a certain definite area for the development of radium in its initiative.

"I believe that we should not be confined to developing the ores on any single withdrawn area" said Secretary Lane. "We should say to all the prospectors in the west: Go out and find these ores, the Government will buy the ore from you at a reasonable compensatory price and will reduce the ores ourselves." Thus we would have all the radium ores that might be discovered at our service.

Secretary Lane added that he and Chairman Foster were at work on a substitute for the present resolution, withdrawing the lands, which would give the Government sole power to purchase all radium ores and develop the product. "We have demands from the United States hospital for more radium than we can hope to produce in the future," said Secretary Lane, "but I believe that we should place supplies of radium in hospitals in cities throughout the country where it would be readily available to the greatest possible number of people."

Representative Mondell made an argument against any plan to withdraw lands. He recommended the reservation to the Government of the right of the Government to buy all radium bearing ore or radium developed from the ore.

LAND OWNERS OF LONDON

Recent Sale May Have Far-Reaching Consequences.

The sale of 19 acres of improved land in the very heart of London at between $2 and $3 millions of dollars, though it is the biggest single real estate transaction on record, is not so astonishing, when it is considered that the property sold includes among less valuable sites, several of London's best known theatres and hotels, a police court, a great sporting club, and the historic Covent Garden market.

The sale is significant in that it marks the protest of a great land owner against the movement led by Mr. Lloyd-George to place upon ur-

Land property its real value for the purpose of taxation, and to curb the power of landlord over tenant.

The land situation in England has been looked upon as scandalous for many decades past. Practically all of London is owned among nine peers—the dukes of Portland, Bedford and Westminster, the marquises of Ely, Salisbury, Northampton and Camden, the Earl of Craven and Viscount Portman. The Duke of Bedford's land holdings in England were reported to be 41,655 acres, bringing him an annual income from land alone of $240,000. Most of the 19 acres which were the subject of the recent sale came into the Russell family in the early part of the 16th century, when it was granted to John Russell, first earl of Bedford, by King Henry VII. It had formerly been the property of the Protector Somerset.

These vast estates were taxed by the government at a valuation that had remained undisturbed for centuries. And if the government was unimpaired of the steadily increasing value of city property, the landlords were not. As each house expired, the landlord promptly raised the rent, and thus, with a small outlay against a large income, had holding in London was a profitable form of investment indeed.

Now that the land owner is required to pay taxes on a reasonable valuation of his land, he is more likely to be willing to part with his holdings. The Duke of Bedford has set the example. The other great land owners may follow it. Really ownership in London seems destined to begin a new and more promising era.

Hot Tea Breaks
A Cold—Try This

Get a small package of Hamburg Brand Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

COLLECTION OF INCOME TAX

Entails Vast Amount of Labor Unseen By Its Framers--Both Internal Revenue Office Force and Secret Service Will Be Greatly Increased.

The public has just awakened to the fact that hundreds of thousands must pay the new income tax, or show cause why they do not, under pain of heavy penalties.

Out of the confusion surrounding the provisions of this new law one fact commands itself to the attention of every one: Every man, woman or child living in the United States, whether a citizen or not, whose income is more than $2,000 a year, must pay the tax. In the case of married men the minimum is extended to $1,000 a year. Even Americans living in foreign countries who retain American citizenship must pay it. The tax is one per cent, on all income in excess of this $2,000 or $1,000, and every one liable to the tax must make a sworn return of income for the last year to the Collector of his or her district before March 1 next or stand in danger of paying a penalty of from $20 to $1,000. On account of last year's exemptions allowed now will be only $2,000 and $1,000 respectively.

The tax this year will be based on the turning between March 1 and December 31 of last year, and a return must be made showing just how much has been received in salary, professional fees, interest, dividends or from any other source.

In the case of salaries, the tax upon which is collected at the source, or in other words, held back by the employer or other person from whom the income is derived, the amounts taxed will be only those earned since Nov. 1, and those amounts must be in excess of $2,500 in order to be liable to taxation.

Return Made is a Sample.
A return actually made to the Collector is now on file in his office as a sample of what each taxable person must do. In this case the figures turned in by the taxpayer have been used, but instead of his real name, John Doe appears as the taxpayer. John Doe, every person who questions leave a total income, on which a normal tax of one per cent, may be collected of $7,730.

But John Doe does not escape with this. The law provides that on all net incomes which exceed $20,000 an additional tax of one per cent, shall be collected. As his net income ($12,339), less the general deductions of $2,000, was $10,339, he must pay the "additional tax" of one per cent, on $10,339, besides the "normal tax" of one per cent, on $7,730. This makes John Doe's total tax liability $201.48.

The Collector will verify this statement and mail to John Doe a statement of his tax liability by June 1. The tax must then be paid before July 1, and if it is not paid then five per cent, is added, besides interest at the rate of one per cent, a month from July 1 until the tax is paid.

These additional taxes have been graduated to bear with increasing weight on the larger incomes. For instance, incomes of from $20,000 to $50,000 a year pay an additional tax of one per cent; from $50,000 to $75,000, two per cent; from $75,000 to $100,000, three per cent; from $100,000 to $250,000, four per cent; and from $250,000 to $500,000, five per cent. Any income greater than $500,000 must pay an additional tax of six per cent.

Return on a $5,500 Salary.

Richard Roe's case is different. He is the "man in the street," and his salary is his principal income. Last year, according to his return, it was $5,500. He is employed by a large corporation. When the books of the corporation showed that Mr. Roe had earned and had been paid $5,500 since the first of the year, the cashier began to deduct one per cent, from his salary each time it was paid, and to hold this amount to be turned over to the Collector of Internal Revenue. This corporation's employer is required to make a return to the Collector by the twentieth day of each month, of all taxes so collected from the taxable employee.

When Richard Roe makes his return to the Collector, before March 1, he will give his income as $5,500, but claim an exemption of $2,000, and a deduction of the balance on account of the tax having been paid at the source. He must, however, make the return, and if he fails, he is liable to a fine of from $20 to $1,000. He must include in this return, in addition to his salary, any money he may have received during the year either from business enterprises undertaken in addition to his regular work, the income from insurance policies, mortgages, or any property he may choose to own, charging against them such deductions as did John Doe. In the case of dividend paying insurance policies the premium would be charged off as a deduction. In most cases more than balancing the dividend. The object of the law is to tax all incomes from all sources whatsoever, and the law specifies these:

Tax Paid on Gross Income.

He then claims a deduction of $2,000, as this part of his income is in the shape of dividends or earnings from corporations which have previously paid a tax on their gross income. John Doe is entitled to this deduction, as the corporations, through which it was earned, have already paid the income tax on it required. He claims a deduction of $2,000, because the tax on this part of his income (probably a salary) was collected at the source during the year. These de-

"CASCARETS" ALWAYS STRAIGHTEN YOU UP

If Costive, Headachy Bilious, Stomach Sour, Breath Bad--Clean Your Liver and Bowels

Get a ten cent box now. You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills, or castor oil? Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A Cascaret (night) will straighten you out by morning—a ten cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular, and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—no griping or sickening.

exhaustion, or wear and tear of property, arising out of its employment in business, not to exceed in the case of ships five per cent, of the gross value at the time of the output for the year. "All income, the tax upon which has been paid at the source.

"Amounts received as dividends upon the stock of any corporation, which is taxed upon its net income, but such dividends shall not be deductible unless first reported in return as part of gross income."

These deductions will not be allowed:

"All personal, living or family expenses."

"Taxes assessed against local benefits."

"All expense of restoring property, or making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance has been made."

"Amounts paid for new buildings, permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate."

It is admitted that in many cases it will be necessary to trust to the honesty of the taxpayer in making his return, although severe penalties are provided for failing to make a return or for making a false one.

NEW HAMPSHIRE COLLEGE NOTES

It is crowded as full as possible of information of daily value on the farm. Any man, old or young, who is making a living dairying can do no better than to attend this year's dairy course. Whatever sacrifice in time and money will be repaid many fold. The course is open to all men and women 16 years of age and over. There are no entrance examinations and tuition is free to residents of New Hampshire.

THIS NEW MEDICINE SAVES YOU MONEY

We are druggists right here in your town and making a living out of the drug business, but it is because people have to have drugs and not because we like to see people suffer, we don't. Our duty is to render the best service we can, and when someone is ailing, we are interested in seeing them take the best medicine that is for their particular trouble. We don't recommend "cure-alls" as we don't believe there are such things. We don't want you to spend more than you have to. Some of you get small wages, and when you're sick, none at all, and you should get the most you can for your money.

We recently came across a new remedy for increasing the strength, and building up people who are run-down and emaciated. We know that a slight trouble sometimes grows into a serious one, and to stop it in the beginning, will save you money in the end. This new compound is called Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is the best remedy, when you are run down, tired out, nervous—no matter what the cause. It doesn't merely stimulate you and make you feel good for a few hours, but takes hold of the weakness and builds you up to a healthy, normal condition. It is a real nerve-food tonic and builder of good blood, strong muscles, good digestion. It contains Hypophosphates which tone the nerves and pure Olive Oil which nourishes the nerves, the blood and the entire system. Pleasant to take. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. MARINES STAFF OFFICERS WIN

Apparently without having caused a ripple of the waters in military circles here a decision of the Attorney General has settled a question which for several years has torn the Marine Corps. The Attorney General has declared that a staff officer of the Marine Corps cannot be ordered from Washington by the major general commandant of the corps. Beginning with the board of inquiry held under the last Administration, when Major General George F. Elliott was commandant of the corps and several of the most prominent officers at marine headquarters were charged with conspiracy against him, this question of the power of the commandant to order the staff officers from Washington has caused unending turmoil in the corps. It is now a living question because of the contention of Colonel Charles L. McCawley, quartermaster of the corps, that the commandant has no authority to transfer him from Washington. Colonel McCawley was ordered away last summer and has been fighting that order ever since. He has at last won, and the Attorney General's decision makes his position in Washington secure.

BROOKLYN AGAIN IN COMMISSION.

The old armored cruiser Brooklyn, which was the flagship of Rear Admiral Schley at the battle of Santiago, went into commission at the Philadelphia navy yard today after an idleness of more than ten years. The historic vessel has been completely remodelled. Much of the wood work of the old fighter has been replaced by fireproof material and new ammunition hoists have been installed. The tower military mast has been retained, although it was the original plan to replace it with the basket type. The Brooklyn when fully commissioned will carry a crew of 550 officers and men, but for the present only a skeleton crew will man the vessel. The Brooklyn has been assigned to the Atlantic reserve fleet, but later will be sent to China to relieve her sister ship, the Saratoga.

WANT CONSTELLATION AT CAPITAL.

Expressing the belief that the Potomac river, just off Potomac Park here, is the most appropriate place in the country for the historic ship Constellation, the Navy League of the United States, in a statement urges that the vessel be brought here and moored in the Potomac. The Constellation one of the first ships of the American Navy, is now at the Naval Training Station, Newport, R. I. The league quotes Rear Admiral Victor Blue, chief of the Bureau of Navigation of the Navy Department, as stating in a report that should the Constellation be brought to the national capital and made accessible to tourists from all parts of the United States, "it would create a greater national interest in the navy and be a means of instilling a greater patriotism in the mind of the younger generation."

GREECE LOST HEAVILY IN THE BALKAN WAR

Paris, Jan. 26.—A coalition between Serbia and Roumania to break up the Austro-Hungarian Empire, in the event of its intervention in favor of Bulgaria during the recent Balkan war, was made by a secret treaty signed on June 10, 1913, according to the Petite République, which publishes the announcement today without any reserve.

The newspaper says the arrangement was known to both Germany and Russia, who were to have shared in the spoils.

The substance of the alleged treaty, as printed today, shows that Germany was to have been rewarded with Buchemia and the whole of German-speaking Austria; Russia was to obtain Galicia; Serbia to take Bosnia, Herzegovina and Dalmatia, while Roumania was to receive as her share Transylvania and all of Hungary east of the river Tisza, thus doubling the size of her territory.

Girls! Beautify Your Hair! Make it Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant—Try the Moist Cloth

Try as you will after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be the after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

BRYAN VISITS MITCHELL.

New York, Jan. 26.—William Jennings Bryan, Secretary of State, called on Mayor Mitchell at City Hall today. A long conference between the two began at once in the Mayor's private office.

The Secretary's call is said to be in connection with Mayor Mitchell's wish to place Col. George W. Goethals at the head of the police department.

A short time before Mr. Bryan arrived the Mayor said that he was still confident Col. Goethals would be the next police commissioner.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Portsmouth Household Will Find Them So

To have the pains and aches of a bed back removed, to be entirely free from annoying dangerous, urinary disorders, is enough to make and kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Portsmouth readers.

Mrs. John M. Smart, 122 Gates St., Portsmouth, N. H., says: "Eight or nine years ago I began to suffer from pains in the small of my back which at times changed to a dull grinding ache and if I overexerted my suffering was intensified. I felt tired nearly all the time and had but little energy. Having reason to believe that my kidneys were disordered, I began trying various remedies but without success, until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Philbrick's Pharmacy. The contents of two boxes improved my condition in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn, Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

ARMY AND NAVY

BRITISH ARMY ADVERTISING SUCCEEDS.

The working out of the scheme for recruiting the British Army by means of newspaper advertisements, which was recently tried by the War Office, offers excellent testimony of newspaper publicity. About ten days ago War Office inserted in most newspapers alluring announcements detailing the advantages of enlistment in the army and inviting would-be recruits to write for a booklet containing further information. Fifty thousand copies of this booklet were prepared and yesterday the last of the whole edition was applied for. The result shows that the advertisement reached the quarters which it was designed to reach. What results have been attained in the increased number of enlistments, however, is not yet announced.

1st Lieut. P. Evans, appointed a first lieutenant.

Back in Service After Ten Years

The old armored cruiser Brooklyn, which was the flagship of Admiral Schley at the battle of Santiago has gone into commission at the Philadelphia navy yard after an absence of more than ten years. She has been completely remodelled. The Scotch boilers have been replaced with the water tube type, her engines have been overhauled and all the guns have been remounted on modern electrically controlled carriages.

Much of her old woodwork has been replaced with fireproof material and new ammunition holds have been installed.

The Brooklyn when fully commissioned will have a crew of 550 officers and men, but for the present only a skeleton crew will man her. She has been assigned to the Atlantic reserve fleet for the present, but later will be sent to China to relieve the Saratoga.

Heard from the Cruiser

The U. S. S. Tacoma was picked up by wireless off Cape Cod shortly after 9 o'clock this morning.

Crew Four Shy.

The ship's company of the U. S. S. Des Moines were four short when the vessel left this port on Sunday. They have been declared deserters and a reward for their arrest has been offered.

Back From the Woods.

Carpenter P. M. Smith of the Hull division returned today from Portage Lake, Maine, where he has been on special duty inspecting lumber for the government.

For Machinery Division.

A call for three boilermakers and three boilermaker's helpers was made for the machinery division today.

Again in Trouble.

The Argentine battle ship Rivadavia came from Quincy to Boston on Monday to complete her trials, which were delayed last November, owing to a break in her engines.

The big vessel went through the draw at Quincy in eleven minutes, but her bottom scraped against the electric submarine cables, breaking two of them, including the one that supplies the current to the Washington street cars. The electric mechanism of the drawbridge also was put out of commission. The trial trips will be begun as soon as the vessel is coaled.

Orders Modified.

The orders to Commander A. T. Long of the U. S. S. Des Moines have been modified and he will be relieved at Norfolk instead of Havana and granted thirty days' furlough before assuming command of the station at Guantanamo.

I WONDER

Why the cruiser Washington which is assigned here as her home port, has not been back for over a year?

Why the government assigns these vessels to Portsmouth and then makes a receiving ship of them at other places, where the work that should come here is done?

When the soldier boys expect to have their first drill in the new armory?

If there is anything about the license commission considering the matter of ordering some of the local saloons to remove?

If the former lady police officer will come back as a summer visitor?

What the plans will be for the entertainment of the State Federation of Labor in this city?

When the city government will get busy with the appropriation?

Who has any hope on the paper mill situation?

If the pool table for the Kittery Point fire department will come back?

Why so many men are blind to the fact that there is a snow shovel in the house?

Why some derelict arrangement attached to the side of the city rubbish cars would not be a good thing, and if it would not meet the approval of the men?

If they would not have all they could swing, even with the rigging for lifting, to get away with some of the boats?

If the Eureka boys have got that New England League muster all bottled up for Portsmouth next September?

If that young lady is to offer any reward for her pet canine that disappeared on Market street?

Start the New Year right by sending your washing to the Home Washing Co. Wet wash, 50c. All washings kept separate during process. All goods called for and delivered. 313 Maplewood avenue, Portsmouth, N. H.; tel. 482-W.
